JOTW #10 – JOURNALIST (BROADCAST)

Could it be you we see soon on the TV, reporting on the latest events as they happen?

Kay Burley (SKY NEWS lead presenter) comes from Wigan and started off at the age of 17 as a reporter with the 'Wigan Evening Post', before moving rapidly up the ladder of success. She was amongst the first to report on the death of Princess Diana and was the first UK journalist to break the news of the 9/11 Twin Towers attack.

Gabby Logan is another famous journalist and broadcaster. She was the first woman to host a live football match on TV. Take a look at her story and how she has dealt with setbacks and tragedy – make sure you also have a look at the labour market information beneath the clip:

Note: both the above women have had hugely successful careers and when interviewed about what has been the key thing that has brought them success they both said the same thing, namely having 'a strong work ethic'. Determination to succeed can take you a long way.
